

MLP extends executive contract of Oliver Liebermann

Wiesloch, March 18, 2021 – At its recent meeting, the Supervisory Board of MLP Finanzberatung SE extended the executive contract of Oliver Liebermann, which runs until December 31, 2021, by five years. The 52-year-old is responsible for Sales on the Executive Board of MLP's largest subsidiary. He has been a member of the Board since 2019.

Oliver Liebermann studied business administration at the University of Augsburg. After graduating, he initially worked as an MLP consultant in Constance and then founded and managed an MLP branch office in Ravensburg. From 2010 to 2019, he was divisional board member responsible for the North-East sales region at MLP.
